with works by Julia Wachtel,
Wendy White & Jason Yates.

East/West focuses on the varied topography and people in this country – the subjects for American artists since the 18th century. By concentrating on works created after 1900, a clear distinction emerges between the artwork inspired by the West or Southwest versus the more traditional paintings and sculpture created by East Coast artists.

A selection of fine American paintings and American and European sculpture, spanning a time-period from the 1840's through the 20th Century.

"Real Monsters in Bold Colors: Bob Thompson and Candida Alvarez" explores the interplay between two artists who have reshaped the discourse of figurative and abstract traditions.

GALLERY TALK: 12pm

Raven Falquez Munsell.

Henrique Faria is pleased to present QUÉESCULTURA?, an exhibition that reconsiders the boundaries of sculpture through the lens of Latin American artistic innovation from the mid-twentieth century to today. Taking its name from a play on words in the work by Diana López — ¿Qué escultura? (What sculpture?) and ¿Qué es cultura? (What is culture?) — the exhibition investigates the dynamic intersection between object, environment, artist, and spectator. QUÉSCULTURA? highlights Latin American perspectives that have long contributed to reshaping how we experience and define “art.”

Silver City: New Works
by Geoffrey Johnson
We are delighted to present new paintings of Manhattan by Geoffrey Johnson. Using a minimal palette, consisting of neutral shades of gray, Johnson's works are elegant, introspective and sophisticated. Iconic scenes of the city range from Fifth Ave to downtown's McSorleys Old Ale House. Also on view will be large scale paintings of the city and the Hamptons by longtime New York artist Susan Grossman.

Hirschl & Adler Modern is delighted to announce an exhibition of early works by American Abstract Expressionist painter Franz Kline (1910–1962). The installation will feature more than 20 paintings and works on paper from 1940 to 1950, before Kline debuted his large-scale black-and-white canvases in his first solo exhibition at the Charles Egan Gallery, New York, in 1950.

From 1 to 3 pm, Clark Winter will be guest at the Howard Greenberg Gallery in New York City to present and sign copies of his new book, Here to There. Photographs from the Road Ahead (Damiani, 2025).

Kapoor Galleries proudly presents Heightened with Gold, our spring exhibition and accompanying 2025 catalog which commemorates the gallery's 50th anniversary and role in advancing global appreciation of the ancient and classical fine arts of India and the Himalayas. Heightened with Gold honors the multi-generational leadership of Kapoor Galleries dedication in procuring and showcasing a distinguished collection of artworks which have captivated collectors, scholars, and the public for over half a century — bringing ancient craftsmanship and spiritual narratives into contemporary discourse.

23 Kate Oh Gallery

31 East 72 St (Mad-Park)
11am-6pm

Nevil Dwek is a New York-based artist whose work explores the intersection of memory, sensory experience, and narrative transition, shaped by his background in filmmaking. His pieces capture the essence of place and time through personal memories, using windows as metaphors for the mind's landscapes, inviting viewers to reflect on their own past. Dwek works across photography, painting, and writing, creating artworks that blend the surreal and the real by printing them onto aluminum and other materials. He founded DMR Productions, a motion picture and photography company.

70th-83rd Street

37 Rubin&Chapelle

964 Madison Ave (75-76)
12pm-3:30pm

Austrian artist Andreas Müller investigates the preconditions of images and objects by addressing metaphysical themes. Originally informed by sculpture and art theory Andreas is interested in the relationship status between these fields and has been working with photography and moving image as intermediaries for years. Lately he has returned to sculpture, while retaining the abstract geometric forms and the principle of scattering – be it fog or light itself – in his artistic language. The works on view explore the balance between cultural and natural artifacts.

ARTIST TALK: 1pm and 2:30pm
Learn from artist Andreas Müller.

38 Shepherd W & K Galleries

58 East 79 St (Mad-Park)
10am-6pm

40 Sous Les Etoiles Gallery

16 East 71 St (Mad-Fifth)
11am-6pm

The first solo show in United States of Pe Lang (B.1974, Switzerland) is conceived as a space of embodied flux and analog certainty, the exhibition draws viewers into an oscillation between precision mechanics and minimal formalisms, inviting contemplation of time, motion, and material transformation. Lang's work delves into new modes of sensory experience, exploring non-digital technologies and material science while drawing from Switzerland's rich heritage of watchmaking and precision engineering.

41 Sprüth Magers

22 East 80 St, 2FI (Mad-Fifth)
11am-6pm

Rosemarie Trockel's two-part project – opening concurrently at Sprüth Magers and Gladstone in New York – continues to develop motifs and themes from the artist's multi-layered oeuvre. The new works created especially for the show at Gladstone are connected through a network of cross-references to both new pieces and rarely shown historical works at Sprüth Magers.

COMMUNITY EVENT
The Tulipán Foundation is building something new — and we want you to help shape it. Experience the ancient art of felt-making as we craft a panel for a traditional Hungarian yurt, an artistic centerpiece and gathering space in our future home.

GALLERY TALKS:
10am, 11:30am, 12:30pm,
2:30pm and 4:30 pm
Learn about the cultural significance of yurts — ancient felt-covered dwellings used by nomadic peoples, including early Hungarians. Discover how this symbol of hospitality and community will become a living work of art at Tulipán's new headquarters.

44 White Cube

1002 Madison Ave (77-78)
10am-6pm

Ilana Savdie's large-scale, visceral paintings explore themes of performance, excess, resistance and transgression. Her solo exhibition 'Glottal Stop' at White Cube New York debuts a new body of work that wrangles with what the artist has termed 'a frantic paralysis': a state in which urgency and inaction exist in constant friction.
