COMMUNITY EVENT AT
FRICK MADISON – THE TEMPORARY
HOME OF THE FRICK COLLECTION,
945 Madison Avenue (74-75) 1pm-3pm

The Frick invites you to sketch with us outdoors, in front of the museum on Madison Avenue at 75th Street. Drawing easels will be available on a first-come, first-served basis (weather permitting). This event is free; all materials will be provided, and no art background is needed. Tickets required for museum entry.

1 Acquavella Galleries

18 East 79 St (Mad-Fifth)
11am-5pm

Tom Sachs: Spaceships. In this exhibition, Tom Sachs questions what constitutes a spaceship, exploring objects that have the ability to move us from one state to another—not only physically but also metaphysically and spiritually.

2 Alexander Berggruen

1018 Madison Ave, 3Fl (78-79)
10am-6pm

"Gabriel Mills: Butterfly March" is a procession of metamorphosis that commemorates the multitudes of one's self through paintings that find peace within paradox. Driven by divinity, Christianity, and spirituality, Gabriel Mills juxtaposes images and non-images that are ostensibly discrete.

3 Alexandre Gallery

25 East 73 St, 2Fl (Mad-Fifth)
11am-5pm

Selected works by first generation American Modernists.

4 Arlene Angard Designs & Fine Art

3 East 66 St, Ste 2A
(Mad-Fifth) 12pm-5pm

Visionary Artists placing their Art into Objects

5 Bonner David Galleries

22 East 81 St (Mad-Fifth)
11am-6pm

Nice Place for a Picnic: A series of paintings interpreting various real and imagined scenes, within New York City and its surroundings. Two artists with similar interests in subject matter yet different approaches to painting and composition.

6 Cheim & Read

23 East 67 St (Mad-Fifth) 11am-6pm

Cheim & Read is pleased to present Ron Gorchoff: Watercolors 1968 – 1980, an exhibition of intimate, revelatory works by one of the most influential painters of the past half-century.

7 DAG

41 East 57 St, Ste 708
(Mad-Park) 11am-6pm

This exhibition explores modernism in 20th century India – the selection presents vernaculars of abstraction and figuration that developed concurrently across art centers in India.

GALLERY TALK: 12pm & 4pm: Director's talk – a brief introduction to Indian modern art accompanied by a gallery walkthrough.

8 David Benrimon Fine Art

41 East 57 St, 2Fl (Mad-Park) 11am-4pm

We are pleased to present our fall show featuring emerging and contemporary painters such as Jordy Kerwick, Alejandro Cardenas, and André Butzer.

9 David Nolan Gallery

24 East 81 St (Mad-Fifth) 10am-6pm

Mad Women: Kornblee, Jackson, Saidenberg, and Ward – Art Dealers on Madison Avenue in the 1960s. A homage to Jill Kornblee, Martha Jackson, Eleanore Saidenberg and Eleanor Ward and their galleries along Madison Avenue in the 1960s.

10 David Zwirner

34 East 69 St (Mad-Park) 11am-6pm

Merrill Wagner on view at David Zwirner: Bringing together works from her career on conventional and unconventional supports—ranging from canvas and paper to slate, stone, steel, and Plexiglas—the presentation provides an overview of Wagner's expansive approach to abstraction and painting.

57th-70th Street

11 Debra Force Fine Art

13 East 69 St, Ste 4F (Mad-Fifth) 11am-5pm
Shades of Impressionism: 1870s – 1930s, featuring American artists painting at home and abroad.

12 DFN Projects

16 East 79 St, Ste G-2, Garden Level (Mad-Fifth) 12pm-4pm
Margot Glass: Garland features a collection of goldpoint, metallic ink, and graphite botanical drawings. Elegant in their subversion, Glass elevates common wildflowers and weeds to objets d'art with her glimmering networks of lines and gestures set against jet black grounds.

13 Edward Tyler Nahem Fine Art

980 Madison Ave, Ste 305 (76-77) 10am-5pm
Edward Tyler Nahem Fine Art (est. 1985) exhibits exceptional modern, post-war, and contemporary works of art at its base on Madison Avenue and participates in art fairs globally. The gallery works with individuals, museums, and corporations to build focused and inspired collections.

14 Emma Scully Gallery

16 East 79 St, Ste 11 (Mad-Fifth) 11am-6pm
Presenting 'Paraciphers,' from acclaimed lighting designer Bec Brittain. Taking cues from the movement of inflated parachutes—specifically, those used by NASA during wind tunnel testing—Brittain has designed a series of fluid forms that mimic the rhythm of flowers in the wind. GALLERY TALK: 2pm & 4pm: "The parachutes provide a sense of relief twice over—first in their physical capacity to save and in the salvation of their messages," says Brittain.

15 Gagosian Shop

976 Madison Ave (76-77) 11am-6pm
The Gagosian Shop curates a unique selection of art books, posters, apparel, homeware, and more. To save 15% on your purchase during the Madison Avenue Fall Gallery Walk, mention "Gagosian15" at checkout. Rare books, rare posters, prints, editions and other select products are excluded. Discount may not be combined with other offers.

16 Galerie Gmurzynska

43 East 78 St (Mad-Park) 11am-6pm
La Main de Picasso – After a successful run in Zurich, Galerie Gmurzynska is delighted to present to its New York audience La Main de Picasso, the centerpiece and namesake of the exhibition being a rare and singular treasure: a plaster cast of Picasso's left hand.

17 Gerald Peters Gallery

24 East 78 St (Mad-Fifth) 11am-6pm
Creative Legacy: Luis Jimenez, Jami Porter Lara and Fernando Andrade. The works of three Hispanic American artists from different periods and backgrounds, each working in different materials (sculpture, pottery and graphite drawing) but united by their cultural references and each with their own political motivations -ethnic identity, environmental issues, civic responses to gun violence.

GALLERY TALK: 12pm & 4pm: Noon: Jami Porter Lara discusses her 2000 year old technique of pottery making and her 21st Century inspiration for these beautifully crafted black burnished vessels. 4pm: Fernando Andrade discusses his relationship to the underlying ominous narrative he depicts. The contrast of the innocent children – playing with their make-believe weapons – poses the question of their uncertain future.

18 Hauser & Wirth

32 East 69 St (Mad-Park) 11am-6pm
The exhibition traces the impact and enduring influence of Lorna Simpson's early photography-based output in the most comprehensive presentation of this period of Simpson's career since her first major survey at the Museum of Contemporary Art in Chicago in 1992. GALLERY TALK: 11am: A guided tour through the exhibition. Visitors should gather on the first floor of the gallery and wait for instructions. Pictures will be allowed, although no flash photography will be permitted.

19 Helwaser Gallery

833 Madison Ave, 3FI (69-70) 11am-6pm
*Indigo Children: Paintings by Françoise Pétrovitch, reveals an ambiguous world, willingly transgressive, playing with conventional boundaries and eluding any interpretation. Intimacy, fragments of life and disappearance, alongside the themes such as the double, transition and cruelty run through her work, inhabited by animals, flowers and figures. GALLERY TALK: 3:30pm
 Tour of Françoise Pétrovitch: Indigo Children Exhibition.*

20 Henrique Faria

35 East 67 St (Mad-Park) 11am-6pm
Marta Minujin: A Survey.
