8 Di Donna

744 Madison Ave (64-65)
11am-6pm

Dalí: The Great Years 1929-1939, is a major exhibition tracing the pivotal decade in which Dalí established both his mature artistic language and enduring public persona. It is the most significant presentation of Dalí's work in New York since the Museum of Modern Art's exhibition in 2008.

GALLERY TALK: 11:30am and 3:00pm

Tour of Dalí: The Great Years, 1929-1939.

9 H|G Fine Art

764 Madison Ave (65-66)
10am-5pm

The Shape of the City: New works by contemporary impressionist painter Geoffrey Johnson. By using a neutral palette and reductive style, Johnson strips away the noise of the city to reveal its underlying structure. From downtown to uptown, his cityscapes are defined by a striking tension: the rigid lines of powerful architecture and the fragile, fleeting figures that move among them.

57th-70th Street

10 Rosenberg & Co.

19 East 66 St (Mad-Fifth)
10am-5pm

The Artist and his Dealer: Giacomo Manzù and

11am-6pm

Venezuelan Cultural Diplomacy brings together works by Venezuelan artists across generations, reflecting the country's enduring contributions to modern and contemporary art. Through abstraction, conceptual rigor, and material experimentation, the exhibition frames culture as continuity, dialogue, and quiet advocacy across time.
Rafael Ferrer | Empire's Mirror introduces work by Rafael Ferrer, a pioneering Puerto Rican artist whose practice spans painting, drawing, sculpture, installation,
performance, and sound.
Emerging in the late 1960s, Ferrer developed a singular language rooted in rhythm, memory, and experimentation.

The gallery is presenting two exhibitions curated by dmincubator: Hand of Venus, a solo exhibition with the artist Lesley Bodzy's who proclaims a feminine desire and gaze through photography and bold sculptures in iridescent colors and several abstract expressionist-style paintings.
The group show is featuring five women emergent artists including Adrienne Lee, Ellen de Meijer, Emilie
Picard, Monique Rollins, Mahsa Tehrani.

23 Van Doren Waxter

23 East 73 St (Mad-Fifth)
10am-5pm

Still Life, a show of paintings and works on paper by the venerable American artist Richard Diebenkorn. This exhibition showcases 14 works from the Diebenkorn family collection that have never been for sale, highlighting the artist's Berkeley period still lives from 1956 to 1967.

24 Kristen Lorello

23 East 73 St, 5FI (Mad-Fifth)
11am-5:30pm

The gallery will host the second solo exhibition of new paintings by Maria Stabio in the main galleries. Local Color, a group

28 Rubin&Chapelle

964 Madison Ave (75-76)
10:30am-5pm

SMAX aka Vienna (Stefan Piëch) is an Austrian artist working within the language of abstraction. Drawing on the legacy of Abstract Expressionism, his practice offers a distinctly contemporary and deeply personal reinterpretation of its core tenets. Through a sustained, process-driven approach, his works are dynamic fields of gesture and material, mapping inner states across various scales and formats.

GALLERY TALKS: 1pm to 3pm Conversation with curator John Silvis.

37 Acquavella

18 East 79 St (Mad-Fifth)
11am-5pm

Acquavella Galleries presents Matisse: The Pursuit of Harmony, featuring fifty works on loan from museums and private collections. The exhibition explores Matisse's evolving approach to form in two and three dimensions across painting, works on paper, and sculpture over five decades of his career.

38 Skarstedt Gallery

20 East 79 St (Mad-Fifth)
10am-5pm

Faces and Figures: Sprawling across the gallery's three locations in New York, London, and Paris, the exhibition comprises paintings and sculptures that demonstrate the myriad ways in which artist, model, and character have been configured and reconfigured from the mid-twentieth century to the present.

39 Shepherd W & K Galleries

58 East 79 St (Mad-Park)
10am-5pm

Face-Off: A Juxtaposition of 19th and 20th Century Works from the Gallery's Collection. Intimate Spaces: Interiors from the 19th and 20th Centuries. German and Austrian Works on Paper from the Gallery's Collection.

40 Leila Heller

22 East 80 St, Ground Fl, The Fine Arts Bldg (Mad-Fifth)
10am-6pm

Wassef Boutros-Ghali: A Retrospective (1965–2016) & Book Launch. A solo exhibition presenting a curated selection of paintings and works on paper by Wassef Boutros-Ghali, alongside his newly published catalogue raisonné. Spanning several decades, the exhibition highlights Boutros-Ghali's distinctive balance between architectural order and painterly intuition.

41 Sprüth Magers

22 East 80 St, 3Fl (Mad-Fifth)
10am-5pm

Monika Sprüth and Philomene Magers are pleased to present a duo exhibition with works by Richard Artschwager and Gary Hume, marking the first time their work has been brought into dialogue. For this show—the first at the New York gallery for each artist—Hume selected his works in direct response to Artschwager's.

42 Rodder

22 East 80 St, 5Fl (Mad-Fifth)
10am-5pm

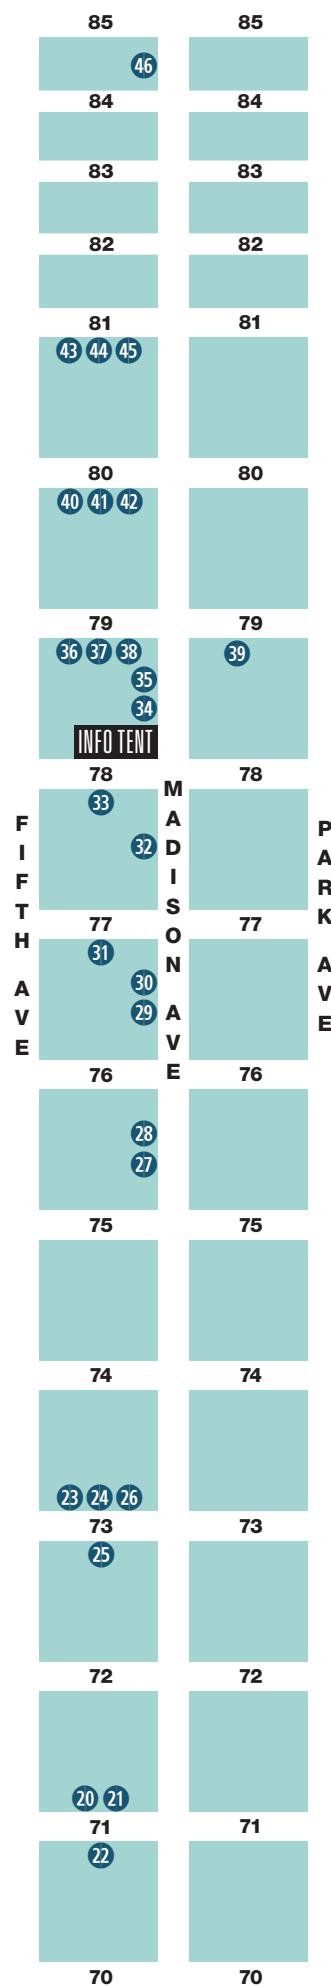

Karla Black: For this exhibition, Black transforms the gallery into a Rococo interior, painting directly on large mirrors with Baroque silhouettes, their scale and contours recalling palatial splendour, the dream of a bygone era marked with overexcess. A group of delicate, but monumental sculptures stand poised among the mirrors. Throughout the exhibition, Black employs her characteristic palette of pale hues and ephemeral materials to permeate the room with work marked by the unconscious.

43 Bonner David Galleries

4 East 81 St, Ste 2B (Mad-Fifth)
11am-6pm

Reverie in Paint, a new exhibition of works by Francis Livingston. This latest body of work reflects Livingston's contemplative approach to painting—abstract, atmospheric, and at times dreamlike. Livingston's paintings explore the intermingling of past and present, drawing heavily from the dramatic architecture, shifting light, and layered history of New York City.

70th-85th Street

44 Elkon Gallery

18 East 81 St (Mad-Fifth)
10am-5pm

Agnes Martin: Works on Paper from the 60's. Additional works on view by: Vicky Colombet, Françoise Gilot, Yoshitomo Nara and Wayne Thiebaud.

45 David Nolan Gallery

24 East 81 St, 4FI (Mad-Fifth)
10am-6pm

Tilt, an exhibition of new and recent work by preeminent American sculptor Mel Kendrick (b. 1949). The exhibition includes free-standing and wall-based painted wood sculptures as well as cast paper drawings that represent Kendrick's singular capacity for innovation within his own inimitable visual language.

ARTIST TALK: 3pm
Exhibition walk-through with artist Mel Kendrick.

46 Memor Museum

1130 Madison Ave (84-85)
12pm-5pm

The Japanese traditional craftsmanship exhibition The Ingenuity of Craftsmanship presents iron kettles, incense burners, and ceramics crafted by master artisans. Each piece bears the distinctive mark of its maker, quietly telling a story of beauty and creation. Whether as subtle décor or as vessels for tea and conversation, these objects transform when brought into a living space. Their singular presence resonates deeply, inviting us to imbue them with meaning and renew our enduring pursuit of timeless beauty.
